Civil War exhibit, apple festival at Linvilla in Middletown this weekend

Sept. 22, 2011, 7:16 p.m. EDT
Delaware County Daily Times

MIDDLETOWN — The Pennsylvania Civil War 150 Museum will be at Linvilla Orchards 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

The free travelling road show in an expandable 53-foot tractor trailer features interactive exhibits about Pennsylvania's role in the War Between the States. Geared for all ages, it's a fantastic and fun history lesson on wheels that's not to be missed. Also this weekend, from 8 a.m.-6 p.m., is Linvilla's family geared Apple Festival and Pie Eating Contest.

Festival-goers can pick their own apples, with 25 juicy varieties to choose from. Hard-core apple lovers can chow down during the tasty apple pie-eating contest for a chance to be named champion and win a prize.

There'll be bushels of fun, live music, games and prizes beginning at 11 a.m. Handyman Rob will appear at 11:30 a.m., the Traveling Train at 1 p.m. and the Absorbent Sea Creature at 2:15 p.m. Ultimate kid entertainer Bill Kerwood performs at 3 p.m.

While you're down on the farm on West Knowlton Road, be sure to visit Pumpkinland with its field full of whimsical storybook and folklore characters. Straw bale and cornfield mazes, face painting, train rides, autumn hayrides and the delightful Jack-O-Lantern Exhibit are all part of the fun.

For more information, call 610-876-7116.
